PAIN-TO-PURPOSE
JOURNEY

MICHAEL SEEVER

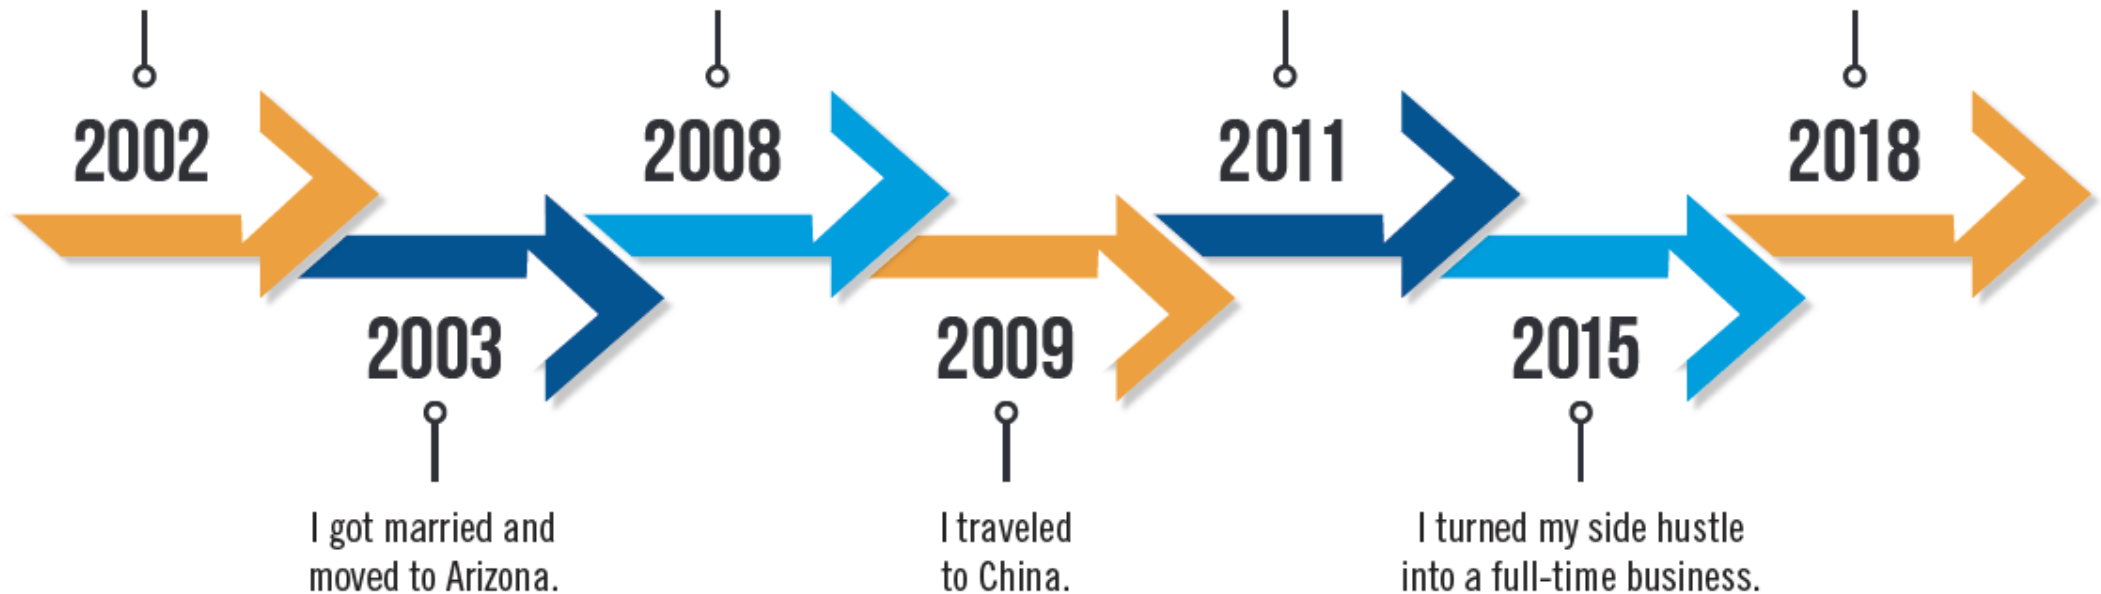

[MY JOURNEY]

I finished college and went back to work for my family's business.

My life fell apart! My wife left me. I lost my house, and I was broke. Then, I started an MBA, and my purpose appeared.

I cried myself to sleep because I realized corporate America wasn't right for me. So, I started coaching.

I'm living the life I dreamt of! I help people disconnected from their purpose uncover and live their purpose.
